Antunez, Roy Take Camel Racing/Skoal Racing Privateer Awards at Hangtown Nationals

Privateers Buddy Antunez of Moreno Valley, Cal. and Jean-Sebastien Roy of Quebec, Canada were declared the overall winners of the inaugural Camel Racing/Skoal Racing Privateer Challenge at the May 6th, AMA 125/250cc Pro Motocross Nationals, held at Hangtown, in Sacramento, Cal.

Antunez, riding a Honda scored 8-5 moto finishes for 5th overall in the 125cc class, taking the $500 cash top Privateer Award.

In the 250 class, a scoring error resulted in the erroneous presentation of the privateer award to Lance Smail. The error was discovered after Victory Ceremonies had transpired. When brought to the attention of Camel Racing/Skoal Racing officials, it was decided that Smail would be allowed to keep the $500 check, but the points toward the Series Challenge $5,000 year-end award would not be valid. A $500 check will be issued to Jean-Sebastien Roy, who rode a Honda to 13-12 moto finishes, for 11th overall in class and Top Privateer on the day. Roy points will also be valid in the chase for the 250cc class $5,000 Privateer Challenge Series Award.
